11. A MONEY JUDGMENT equal to the value of any proceeds obtained, directly or indirectly, as the result of violations of 21 U.S.C. §§ 841, 846, 848, and/or 952, as set forth in the superseding indictment or most recently filed charging document, and any property used, or intended to be used, in any manner or part, to commit, or to facilitate the commission of, such offenses.

¹ Seizing the cryptocurrencies resulted in a series of small transaction fees, which occur in the normal course of business, and which were taken from the seized cryptocurrencies by the wallets (and the companies that created the wallets) in which the cryptocurrencies were and are held.

Pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 982(a)(1), upon conviction of any offense in violation of 18 U.S.C. §§ 1956 and/or 1957, the defendants shall forfeit to the United States of America any property, real or personal, involved in such violations, and any property traceable to such property. The property to be forfeited includes, but is not limited to the following:

- A MONEY JUDGMENT equal to the value of all property involved in the money laundering and any property traceable to such property.

SUBSTITUTE ASSETS

If any of the property described above, as a result of any act or omission of the defendants:

- a. Cannot be located upon the exercise of due diligence;
- b. Has been transferred or sold to, or deposited with, a third party;
- c. Has been placed beyond the jurisdiction of the court;
- d. Has been substantially diminished in value; or
- e. Has been commingled with other property, which cannot be divided without difficulty.

The United States of America shall be entitled to forfeiture of substitute property pursuant to 21 U.S.C. § 853(p), as incorporated by 28 U.S.C. § 2461(c).

Respectfully submitted,

JOHN W. HUBER
United States Attorney
